

Access and Equity

1.0 Purpose

- 1.1 The principle role of the Access and Equity Policy is to promote full and equal participation of all external and internal individuals at National Training Services (NTS). NTS will endeavour to promote and foster an environment free of discrimination and harassment to all its stakeholders.

NTS will comply with its legal and moral duty to respect the rights and beliefs of course participants and staff through avoidance of discrimination, recognition of the special needs of clients and course participants, physical access to courses, mentoring, culturally appropriate behaviour, and equal opportunity.

In line with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 – Standard 4 & 5 NTS ensures that potential learners are aware of the programs and support services provided, the responsibilities and obligations of the RTO and the delivery and assessment structures to enable an informed decision to enrol and commence training.

2.0 Responsibility

- 2.1 The CEO and Managing Director are responsible for implementation of this procedure and ensuring that all staff members are aware of the procedure.

3.0 Scope

- 3.1 This policy applies to all employees, partners/brokers and learners of National Training Services (21254) in relation to learner recruitment and access to its courses and other services. This policy relates to the following legislation: Australian Consumer Law, Anti-Discrimination Act, Equal Opportunity Act and Disability Act in each State and Territory, Working with children Act, Privacy Laws. This policy includes all regulatory requirements that fall under the RTOs obligations as a registered training organisation.

4.0 Definitions

Access - in an educational environment access relates to entry into a course. This includes ensuring a learner is not discriminated against through the selection and enrolment process; this includes working within State and Federal government eligibility criteria. The RTO must make its training and assessment services available to everyone, free from any form of discrimination and irrespective of a person's age, gender, disability, country of birth, language, race, religion, culture or other background.

AQF Level – stands for Australian Qualifications Framework. The AQF is the national policy for regulated qualifications in Australian education and training. It incorporates the qualifications from each education and training sector into a single comprehensive national qualifications framework which has identified qualifications as meeting academic levels (Level 1 – 10).

Discrimination - occurs when a person or group of people, is treated less favourably than others due to the person or groups circumstances, characteristics, or beliefs. Direct discrimination takes place when a person, or group of persons is treated less fairly than others because of their background or personal characteristics. Indirect discrimination includes rules, practices, or policies which appear to be non-discriminatory and equally applicable, but operate in such a way that certain groups of people are excluded without just cause.

Equity – in an educational environment, equity means that training and assessment products and services will be delivered on the basis of fair treatment for all learners. Equity is not about treating everyone the equally, it's about ensuring that all learners having an opportunity to reach their potential and gain their qualification no matter which pathway they take or the assistance that they require.

Harassment - includes the following behaviours:

- i. Verbal, written and physical harassment
- ii. Unwanted sexual advances
- iii. Bullying
- iv. Violence
- v. Vilification
- vi. Victimisation and / or ostracisation
- vii. Inappropriate comments in the classroom and or on social media
